WHEREAS, Kansas law provides that nonirrigating landowners within an organized Groundwater Management District may request that their land be withdrawn from assessment and thereby abandon their right to vote in internal matters if such notice is given to the Board of Directors prior to January 1 of the effective year, and

WHEREAS, Groundwater Management District No. 3 organized after January 1, 1976, which would not permit landowners to make a timely request to have their land withdrawn from the district in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 82a-1021(c), and

WHEREAS, the purpose of the date of filing requirement was for the convenience and orderly procedure of the Board of Directors:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That inasmuch as Groundwater Management District No. 3 was incorporated on March 23, 1976 which may have precluded eligible landowners from meeting the deadline for withdrawal of nonirrigated land from District organization as stated in the law, the Board of Directors of District No. 3 agrees to extend the date for applications for withdrawal of such land to June 1, 1976.

Done this 28 day of April, 1976, in Garden City, Kansas.
